MINUTES OF THE ADVISORY COUNCIL

Monday Evening, June 18

The Council met in headquarters room at the Roberts Hotel. The meeting was called to order, 7:30, Monday evening, by Department President, Anna Davis. "Lord's Prayer" was repeated in unison.. Roll call found fourteen members present.

Department Treasurer, Amanda Jordan, reported that there were five 1926 rituals and two 1932 rituals in the trunk. There are many mistakes in the 1932 rituals. The National will not let the Department sell the rituals, neither will they furnish stickers to correct the mistakes. The Treasurer by order of the Department President had stickers made to correct the mistakes. After some discussion it was decided to destroy the rituals as ordered by the National.

It was moved by Past Department President Nellie Stammel and seconded by Past Department President Gertrude Fox and Mattie Miller that the Circles in the Department of Indiana use escort flags. Motion carried.

Past Department President Gertrude Fox reported that Wayne Circle had asked that they be permitted to discontinue paying per capita tax on aged members. After some discussion Past Department President Mattie Miller moved to petition the National to relieve Circles from paying per capita tax on members who have been relieved from paying dues to Circle. Seconded by Past Department President Nellie Belle Kitchel. Motion carried.

Past Department President Nellie Stammel moved that the Circles of Indiana discontinue using the flag as an alter cover. Seconded by Past Department President Mattie Miller. Motion carried.

The Council adjourned as the Bugler sounded Taps.

REPORT OF DEPARTMENT PRESIDENT

Muncie, Indiana, June 19, 1934.

To the Officers and Members of the Forty-first Annual Convention, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic:

One year ago at Huntington you elected me your Department President and I accepted the duties and responsibilities with but one thought in mind, to do the best I could. I am very grateful for the confidence you placed in me at that time and as my year is about to close, I hope I still have that confidence.

Immediately upon returning to Indianapolis I established headquarters at my home, 1314 Kealing Avenue, Indianapolis.

On June 22nd I issued my first General Orders announcing the names of Department Officers and issued a new pass word.

On July 17th, accompanied by my Secretary, Sister Bessie Hart and Sister Nellie K. Stammel, I made my first official visit, to Muncie, where I met our Treasurer, Sister Amanda Jordan and after our business was completed we drove to a park where a joint picnic of the two Circles was very much enjoyed by all.

July 7th accompanied by Sisters Ida Rushton, Aurilla Benson, Janie Vanasdal and Nellie K. Stammel, drove to Wabash to try to revive interest in General Hackelman Circle. Could not do any good at this time so a meeting was arranged later and the Charter taken in. This Circle had two large silk Flags and they asked if they could keep one of them to donate to the Daughters of Union Veterans. I told them we had nothing to do with their Flags, they were their property, so they gave both of them to the Daughters.

On July 27th attended G. A. R. picnic sponsored by the Federated Patriotic Societies at Indianapolis.

On July 28th accompanied by Comrade and Sisters Akers, Nellie Stammel and Janey Vanasdal, started for Monticello. At Delphi Comrade Akers gave his place to Sister Adelia Maxwell, he staying with Mr. Maxwell. We found the Ladies in Monticello eager to reorganize and we planned to go back later. On our way home we stopped at the home of Sister Maxwell to get Comrade Akers and were served a bountiful supper at the Maxwell home.

July 30th, Brother and Sister Stammel, my husband and myself drove to Terre Haute and had dinner at the home of our Junior Past Department President, Sister Ellen Gray.

August 18th accepted invitation of General Sherman Circle at Fort Wayne to visit that Circle and officiate at the initiation of a class of candidates, fifteen ladies and seven sons and grandsons. A chicken supper was served. Sisters Gertrude Fox and Alice Andersen were also guests of honor. Music and dancing were the features of the evening after the business meeting.

August 30th accompanied by Comrade and Sister Akers, Sister Nellie Stammel and Mrs. Mabel Dobbins we drove to Monticello for the purpose of reorganizing Major Lawton Circle No. 24. Sisters Adelia Maxwell, Lizzie Best and Maley of Delphi were also guests and after a delicious pot luck supper this Circle again received a Charter with Twenty-five members. The Indianapolis Sisters were guests of Sister Mae Warfel and others. We again stopped at the home of Sister Maxwell at Delphi on our way home next day and were served a bountiful chicken dinner. Our visits at the home of Sister Maxwell and her husband will long be remembered with pleasure.

September 5th made an official visit to Col. Eli Lilly Circle. A pot luck dinner was served at noon at the Court House and we witnessed the exemplification of the ritual in the afternoon. Several members from Col. Samuel Orr Circle were present, also Sister Nora Etnire, Department Senior Vice President. Sister Lulu David gave a party at her home that evening and Sister Etnire and myself were guests over night.

September 6th Sisters Daisy Shoultz, Department Inspector, Sister Bessie Hart, Department Secretary, Sister Ida Rushton, Department Registrar and Sister Bertha Icenogle drove from Indianapolis to Muncie and were also guests at dinner served at the Court House and also witnessed the Inspection of Col. Samuel Orr Circle.

September 14th accompanied by Department Secretary, Sister Bessie Hart, left for Chicago. Visited the Fair one day and left September 15th for St. Paul to attend the National Convention. It was a wonderful trip and one I will long remember. It was also a pleasure to bring back the National Patriotic Instructor, Sister Nellie K. Stammel.

October 3rd made official visit to Lafayette. Arrived just at noon and a fried chicken dinner was served after which we went to the Court House to witness the exemplification of the ritualistic work. Sisters Adelia Maxwell and Lizzie Best of Delphi were also guests. October 25th was Grand Army Day at the Lafayette Home. I had to decline the invitation to be present as I had arranged Inspection on this date, but I resolved that I would try to make a visit to this home before my year's work ended. Sisters Emma Akers and Henrietta Schmadel who are both on this Committee were present and will make report.

Received invitations to attend Department Conventions from Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania. It was with regret that I had to decline these invitations.

October 19th accompanied by Sisters Nellie Stammel and Mable Dobbins, we drove to Fort Wayne, met with members of Wayne Circle and enjoyed a pot luck dinner. Sister Dora Pressler had a party at her home that evening and I was her guest over night, Sisters Stammel and Dobbins going home with Sister Gertrude Fox.

Friday afternoon we visited Sherman Circle and after inspection a pot luck supper was served.

Friday night we met with members of Stirk Circle and witnessed splendid work. After the meeting there was a social hour with music, dancing and refreshments. The table decorations were lovely. Sister Mable Dobbins gave a reading. We were guests of Sister Fox Friday night. Sister Nora Etnire was also a guest.

Stopped at Mother Eaton's dining room and there we met members of Terre Haute Circle and Sisters Lydia and Georgia Manson. After dinner we went to the Court House where my Inspector, Sister Daisy Shoultz and several members of Captain William Circle met us and the work in general was good but it is the only Circle that balloted absolutely perfect. Sister Stammel and I were guests of Sister Ellen Gray over night.

Next day at noon all met at the Terre Haute House, where a banquet was spread in honor of the 10th Anniversary of Captain Williams Circle. After the banquet all drove to the Court House, where we witnessed this Circle exemplify the ritualistic work and it was very good.

Bennett Circle members, and Sister Minnie Penwell, Sister Rayles, Department Librarian and others from Tipton, visited A. D. Streight Circle, of which Sister Ida Rushton, Department Registrar is a member. After a splendid dinner at the Inspection followed and the meeting was enjoyed by all.

November 10th met with the Rushville Ladies, in the afternoon. There were not enough members to have a meeting, so I inspected the books of the Secretary and Treasurer. Sisters Jordan, David and King of Muncie were there as guests. Brother Jordan was also present. We all drove to Connersville to the home of Sister Alice Morris, where the members of John Hamilton Circle served a bountiful dinner, after which the ritualistic work was exemplified. After a very pleasant evening, went home with Sister Lulu David of Muncie and spent the night as her guest.

November 14th was a red letter day in my year. Accompanied by Sisters Minnie O'Harrow, Department President of the Auxiliary to the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, Sisters Nellie Stammel, Clementine Vanasdal and Mable Dobbins, we attended Grand Army Inspection of the Knightstown Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home. It is a wonderful home, well taken care of. A report of this visit will be given later.

November 15th accompanied by Sister Nellie Stammel went to Peru. A wonderful pitch in dinner was spread at the Court House, and in the afternoon the ritual was exemplified. That evening Sisters Mary Keppen and Etta Moore took Sister Stammel and I to Logansport to a fried chicken dinner, given by Lincoln Circle No. 1., after which we returned to Peru and were guests at Sister Keppen's home over night.

Next morning, November 16th, went to Fort Wayne, to adjust a little matter in Sherman Circle and then came back to Huntington and had the pleasure of witnessing the ritualistic work of Isreal Heaston Circle. The work was followed by a pot luck supper and a very pleasant social evening. A goodly number of Fort Wayne Ladies were also present. Sister Stammel and I were guests of Sister Josephine Glass over night.

Next day, accompanied by Sisters Glass, Snyder and Pence, of Huntington drove to New Castle, where guests from Muncie and Richmond were present. An excellent pitch in dinner was served to all, and a very lovely meeting and Inspection enjoyed.

November 20th, accompanied by Sister Stammel went to Tipton. Were met at the station, and taken to the home of Sister Irene Finley. When the doors leading to the dining room were opened a beautiful sight met our eyes. Small tables beautifully decorated, arranged around a large table set with everything good to eat. After dinner we drove to the Court House where we witnessed good work. We were the guests of Sister Finley over night.

Next day, November 21st, went to the home of Sister Minnie Penwell and enjoyed visiting with her until time to go to the Court House, where tables were set and groaning under the weight of good things to eat. After we witnessed the exemplification of the ritual, Sister Stammel as Inspector, we spent the night with Sister Penwell, and next day were dinner guests of Sister Jeanette Rayles.

That night met with members of Phil Sheridan Circle and after a very pleasant and business like meeting a real birthday surprise was given Sister Mary Shade, their President, and myself. We both received lovely gifts and each a big birthday cake. It was nearing midnight when the party broke up. Sister Shade took me to the Hotel for the night and next morning I left for Washington.

Arriving in Washington December 22nd, I went at once to the home of Sister Dona Walter where several members of U. S. Grant Circle met for luncheon after which we went to the Court House and it was a pleasure to witness very excellent work.

I regret very much that while in this location I could not arrange with the Circles to visit Princeton, Fort Branch and Winslow.

On January 2nd I accepted the invitation of Col. Eli Lilly Circle of Muncie to install the new officers.

On January 3rd installed officers for Wm. H. Trulock Circle and on January 11th installed officers for A. D. Streight Circle, both of Indianapolis.

One of the outstanding social affairs of my year was a party given by Comrade and Sister Akers January 9th. All Department Officers of the Ladies of the Grand Army in Indianapolis and a few others were guests. Place cards for each guest were named for some one of our Nation's prominent women and each guest responded accordingly. A bountiful and delicious dinner was served. Sister Akers makes a most charming hostess.

On January 23rd was one of the honor guests at the Midwinter Meeting of the Auxiliary to the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War. Was called on for remarks and responded briefly.

During February attended several different functions the principal one being a reception for the National President and Staff of the Auxiliary to the American Legion. Was introduced with my Secretary from the floor and welcomed. Each of the different patriotic orders in Indianapolis has been very lavish in their recognition of my Secretary and myself and many receptions have been given in our honor.

The National President and Sister Frances Meyer were guests in my home over night, Sister Ehrmann leaving early the next morning for a western trip.

We were over night guests of Sister Meyer.

June 9th had the very great pleasure of attending the Commencement at the Knightstown Home. Arrived at the Home at 10 o'clock, and went immediately to the auditorium where the exercises were held. Nineteen boys and girls were in the graduating class and I presented each with a gift with the good wishes of our Department. Again had a most excellent dinner at the Home. Was accompanied on this visit to the Home by Sisters Bessie Hart, Nellie Stammel and Janey Vanasdal.

Had a bountiful dinner at the home of Sister Mary Ann Force it being a joint gathering of the Ladies of the Grand Army and the Daughters of Union Veterans. After hearing an interesting program went to the Home, Sister Frances Meyer accompanying us. Went through several of the buildings, conducted by Sister Elizabeth Sparks. This was also a red letter day for me. We had supper with Sister Frances Meyer returning to Indianapolis that evening.

Sisters as I am about to close my year's work as your Department President, I again want to express to you my appreciation for the honor you have conferred upon me and your loyal cooperation. I have tried to serve you to the best of my ability.

To each and every officer, I wish to thank you most sincerely for your assistance and response to any requests I have made of you. You have been a loyal official family.

I wish to thank also the Past Department Presidents whose words of encouragement and counsel have been most helpful to me.

To the Department Presidents of the various allied organizations with whom I have worked this year I wish to say that our associations have been most pleasant, and I hope the friendships formed will last during the years to come.

The year just passed has brought me much happiness and the sweet memories of my year's work with you will ever remain with me.

I wish to thank each of you for the honor you conferred upon me in our city last June. REPORT OF DEPARTMENT PATRIOTIC INSTRUCTOR

Fort Wayne, Indiana,
June 15, 1934

To the Officers and Members of the Forty-first Annual Convention of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic:

Greetings:

Upon my return home last year, I immediately started thinking of what we might do in Patriotic work during this last year. Financial conditions did not seem to warrant any great expenditure of money. The first affair I attended was a pot-luck supper, followed by a meeting of General Sherman Circle of Fort Wayne. Our Department president was present at this meeting and initiated a class of fifteen candidates for this circle.

In October of 1933, I attended the annual inspection of Wayne Circle No. 45, and my own Circle, S. W. Stirk No. 18.

The following schools were visited:

Dec . . The grade school and High school at Harlan, Indiana.

District No. 4 of Springfield Township, Allen County, Indiana.

District No. 3 of Pleasant Township, Allen County, Indiana.

In each case the children were led in the pledge to the flag. In May, the 6B room of the Nebraska School was visited. At this time I was accompanied by Sister Gertrude Fox, National Patriotic Instructor of the Betsy Ross Club, who had with her the Betsy Ross Flag. At the request of Sister Fox, I sent to the teacher of this group a copy of the poem "The Glorious Banner that Betsy Made", written by our Sister Frances Haskell, of the state of Washington.

February 12, 1934, I was chairman of the Lincoln Day program given by the Federated Patriotic Society. This was followed by a visit to the Lincoln Museum in the Lincoln Life Building. This collection is one of the finest memorials to Lincoln in the United States. It was my desire at this time to present a flag to the Museum in the name of the Ladies of the G. A. R., However, after consulting our department President, it was decided that it would not be wise at this time to lay this extra financial burden on our circles.

April 11, 1934, I attended the Appomattox Day luncheon given by the Federated Patriotic Societies. At this time I presented tiny silk table flags to all our veterans attending the luncheon and to our speaker, a young negro graduate of Tuskegee Institute.

In company of Sister Gertrude Fox and Sister Bartel of Stirk Circle, I visited the following places of historical interest in Ft. Wayne: we first went to the site of the first fort built by General Anthony Wayne, September 17, 1794, and raised a flag to float the stone that now marks the spot. We then drove over the route over which General Wayne's army marched on their arrival at the fort that year.

We next visited Harmar's Ford, the scene of the most bitter battle of all between the white settlers and Chief Little Turtle's Tribe. The Maumee river ran red with blood that day and now a monument in memory of the slain leaders marks the spot. We then took our flag to wave over the site where the fort was rebuilt in 1800. This post served as a land office until 1823.

We next visited the grave of Little Turtle and permitted our flag to wave over the last resting place of one who had so bitterly opposed its coming and then striven so loyally to teach his people the ways of white men. The monument to our Civil War dead was then visited and the flag floated beside the marble stone in honor of those that gave their lives that this flag might reign supreme in this country. The monument to Major General Lawton and General Wayne were visited and the flag waved beside them in their memory. We then visited the markers of the first and last French forts and the grave of Johnny Appleseed.

We concluded our trip by visiting the monument in honor of Colonel Foster. Our beautiful flag once more unfurled its folds to the breeze. Colonel Foster is the only living veteran so honored by a monument. He will live forever, not because of his military record attained in service for his country, not by reason of his business career for all must earn a livelihood, but by the laughter of the children, the strength of the youth, and the joy of the middle aged, who shall live and love and know real happiness in that greater Indiana, which is his dream come true.

Our drive homeward took us past the place where a Jesuit priest held the first religious service in Ft. Wayne.

In conclusion, I wish to again thank all the sisters for their support during this last year. Especially do I wish to mention the patriotic instructors of the circles. Your reports are to be commended. Though these have been trying times your work has gone steadily forward. A total of 800 flag salute leaflets were distributed and several flags. I give you my sincere thanks and ask you to support my successor as faithfully.

Respectfully submitted in Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty,

ALICE ANDERSEN,
Department Patriotic Instructor.

REPORT OF DEPARTMENT REGISTRAR

To the Officers and Members of the Forty-first Annual Convention of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic:

Dear Sisters:

I wish to submit the following report:

I have recorded all reports and forwarded the same to the National, that I have received from the different circles.

Quite a few of these records are not complete, consequently the National Registrar has sent them back, asking me to have each circle complete records as far back as 1924.

I am endeavoring to co-operate with the National Registrar to the best of my ability.

I am sending out this month with each blank, a list for correction, asking each registrar to correct and forward same to the National Registrar, so she can complete her books for the National.

I wish to thank each Circle for their support of this office. Hoping the coming year will be a prosperous one, I am,

Loyally yours in F. C. and L.

Department Registrar.

In looking back over my year of service as Department Corresponding Secretary, I am deeply appreciative of the honor shown me by our Department President, Sister Anna Davis, in appointing me. I feel particularly grateful to Sister Davis and Sister Emma Akers for their help and advice.

I have tried to make our communications as representative of all Indiana as possible, and could have been more successful in this had the circles cooperated in sending in items. Each time the items were sent to both the Bugle Call and the National Tribune.

This work has been a pleasure, and I trust I have seemed worthy of the honor conferred upon me.

REPORT OF LAFAYETTE SOLDIERS HOME VISITING COMMITTEE

To the Officers and Members of the Forty-first Annual Convention of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic:

Having been asked by our Department President, Sister Anna Davis, to serve as chairman of the Committee to the State Soldiers' Home, was pleased to accept the honor.

Through the kindness of Sister Stumph, who furnished transportation, we arrived at the Home on time and met the other committees. We were taken on a tour of inspection, visiting the Widow's Home, Old Peoples' Home, Hospital Dining Room, Kitchen, Library, also a number of cottages.

All members of the Home seemed happy and contented, and had only words of praise for the officials and management of the Home. In every building everything was neat and in order.

At noon a delicious dinner was served in the Hospital Dining Room, and was enjoyed by all. We were shown over the grounds, which were beautiful, and before leaving for home were taken to the office and introduced to Colonel Gilpen, who gave us a very interesting and instructive talk concerning the management of the Home.

Yours in F. C. and L.,

EMMA AKERS.

REPORT OF VISIT TO THE KNIGHTSTOWN SOLDIERS AND SAILORS ORPHANS' HOME

To the Officers and Members of the Forty-first Convention, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic:

Although not a member of the Visiting Committee to the Knights-town Home, it is a pleasure to report the visit to this wonderful Home.

November 14th, with our Department President, Sister Anna
Davis, Mrs. Minnie O'Harrow Department President of the Auxiliary to the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, Sisters Clementine Vanasdal and Mabel Dobbins, all of Indianapolis, we drove to Knights-town arriving there about 9:45. After registering and greeting many members of the allied organizations, we were conducted through the various buildings by Superintendent Cortner. We saw many of the classes in session and enjoyed especially the kindergarten room, the kindergarten class having been dismissed for the day. It was an impressive sight at the noon hour to witness the children march in to the dining rooms and the tiny tots in their high chairs being served their noon meal.

We were served a most excellent dinner at 12 o'clock which seemed to be thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

After dinner we were favored with a concert by the Home Band and a splendid program given in the auditorium by several of the boys and girls.

The home family has grown to be a very large family, there being 914 children two of whom are direct Grand Army children and one Grand Army grandchild.

Nine Comrades were present for this official Inspection and several representatives from each of the allied organizations.

Indiana should be proud of this living monument to our heroes of all wars and we of the Grand Army family should be doubly proud of the fact that this Home was first sponsored by the Veterans of the Civil War.

I am sure we all appreciate the manner in which this Home is conducted by Superintendent Cortner and his assistant, Mrs. Cortner.

I have had the pleasure several times of visiting the Knightstown Home and always feel that I have spent a most enjoyable and worth while day.

Lovingly submitted in F. C. and L.

NELLIE K. STEMMEL,

REPORT OF DEPARTMENT ORGANIZER

To the Officers and Members of the Forty-first Annual Convention, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic:

When our Department President, Sister Davis, appointed me Department Organizer I accepted the office with great hopes that we would be able to organize a few Circles at least as my ambition is to have at least one Circle in every county seat and I think some time we will be able to accomplish this but for the past few years organization work as we all know has not been progressing at all rapidly.

With our Department President, on August 30th reorganized Major General Lawton Circle No. 24 which to me is as important as organizing a new Circle, to be able to get our former members back into the work we all love. This Circle reorganized with twenty-five members and I believe will go forward in the work of our order in the future as they have in the past, working for the interests of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic.

I wish to express to our Department President my sincere appreciation for the honor of being permitted to serve as Department Organizer.

Loyally submitted in F. C. and L.

NELLIE K. STEMMEL,

Department Organizer.

This has proven an interesting and valuable step and one that we hope will be carried on through the years.
